By Andy Liang 南湖國小四年級

One day, my brother and my friends wanted to buy a doll, and they went to a shop.

When my brother went home, he put the doll on his table, but when he went to sleep, he saw the doll was missing. He went to the living room; he saw the doll was outside.

On the other day, my brother went to buy a doll again. When he went home, he found the doll disappeared again. Unexpectedly, the doll was on the counter. It was freaky!
