

Ghost Story

By Joshua Chiang明湖國小四年級

One day, John, Melody and Dennis played in the forest. They got lost at night, they wanted to find a place to sleep. They found an old house, they went in and they went into the bedroom and slept.

When they flipped over the blanket, they saw a dead person on the bed. They ran into the kitchen and saw a woman who was taking a knife and looking at them. They thought that evil was coming. They ran to the pool, but John fell into the pool, Melody fell into the pool, too. Dennis didn't know why he threw up the blood and his eyes turned white, then he died! After that, nobody went into that house again!
