A long long time ago, there was a kindergarten called CKids. One day the uncle and aunt would drive the car to pick up the children. One the way, they had to cross a railroad, suddenly the railroad broke, all of the people in the car fell into a cliff.

Ten years passed, there were two boys. A boy was called Bob, and the other was called John, they've heard a lot of CKids story, they didn't believe it. Therefore they went to the railroad and stopped the car in the middle of the railroad. Then they felt the car was moving. So they went out of the car. Then Bob yelled loudly, John went over and asked Bob what was going on, then John saw a lot of hands in the car. They drove away. After that, no one went to the railroad again.
