

The Music Classroom

By Charlotte Wu 南湖國小五年級

A long time ago, there was a school. Someone said, “At 12:00 the music classroom will spread of the music.” A girl called July didn’t believe it at all, so she went to the music classroom at 12:00. She really heard the music, but she was still not afraid. When she stepped into the classroom, she didn’t see anything. She only saw a picture of a dancer. Strange thing happened, the dancer in the picture started to dance. As July saw it, she swooned.

The next morning, someone found her at the music classroom. But she’s dead and with no eyes.
