

A Pretty Coin

By ART Lee麗湖國小六年級

A long time ago, there was a boy named Korna. He had a beautiful coin, but Korna didn't know. There was a police named Sasful who lived with Korna. One day, Korna got killed, and the police couldn't find out who did it. One of the police named Lunnis. He found a beautiful coin on the ground so he picked it up and brought it home. Two days later, Lunnis was killed by a knife. But, the police said no one went into Lunnis's home. A police named Socerer felt this was crazy! When he was thinking about this, he found the coins. He thought the coin was pretty. So he brought it home. Six days later, Socerer got killed, too! Sasful thought the coin was in Socerer's pocket, so he thought about the coin, and thought about Korna, Lunnis and Socerer. He thought they all died with the coin. So he took the coin to the temple. They thought this coin was from a person named Dorkeran. Korna thought it was pretty so he killed Dorkeran and took the coin. But Dorkeran hated Korna so he became a ghost and lived in the coin. So Sasful threw the coin to Dorkeran's tomb. And this story has a good ending.

