

The Popping Eye

One day, Selina, Cynthia and Jack agreed to go to Sam's house to play computer games. They arrived there around 4:30 pm. Time passed so fast; they didn't notice it's 7:30 that's why they all felt hungry.

Selina and Cynthia went down the kitchen to prepare their dinner. They both heard some strange sounds coming from outside. They looked out to see where the strange sound came from. Then they saw the shadow of a white lady with a long hair kept walking in front of them. Suddenly the white lady faced them and popped out her eyes. It kept on popping in and out several times. Selina and Cynthia got so scared and both screamed out loudly.

Jack and Sam heard their scream and hurriedly went down to see what happened to them. They told Jack and Sam what they heard and saw. So the four of them went outside the house to ask from their neighbor's guard.

They told the guard the whole story and the guard laughed so loudly, they wondered what's so funny about their story. The guard told them that their neighbor were having their practice for the Halloween party program.

The lady in white put a cheese ball on her cheeks and pulled it in and out. So from far distance in the shadow it seems like the eye is popping in and out.
